Thank you to all who auditioned. For those who were cast, you will receive an email in December regarding the first read through and parent meeting which will be the first week back from Christmas break! For those who were not, we wish we could cast everyone but there are only so many roles. Please continue to work on your craft and try again next year. We want you to be involved with Tri-School Productions, so please look for information on stage crew, and more coming to the website in December!
